Graduation Party Menus

Successful party guidelines...

If your budget is limited, go with less decorations or plain disposable plates and napkins, but never skimp on the food – it is very important to the success of any party. You want to make sure you have enough food and that you have the right type and variety. Buffet-style dining with finger- or bite-sized food is always best. Make sure you have a wide variety of food and beverages. Not everyone likes what you like, so having several different choices will ensure that everyone is happy and well fed.

Single servings may consist of 6 oz of meat, twice that for big eaters. Depending on the number of your guests, 2 to 4 side dishes are appropriate. Meat and cheese or veggie trays are always a big hit. Also, try serving buttered herb or garlic bread. It is inexpensive but very filling if you are inviting some big eaters. Be sure to serve those sweet finger foods ~ cookies and bars with your graduates special cake, to ensure that everyone's sweet tooth is satisfied.

Have lots of disposable containers on hand to send leftovers home with your guests.

Food can be left at room temperature for up to 3 hours, but must be refrigerated soon after that. Serve or freeze leftovers within 48 hours.

Ranger City Marketplace is here to help you choose quality foods that are easy enough to prepare that you'll be able to celebrate with your graduate. You have the choice to roast the meat yourself or order it precooked, sliced and ready to put into your serving dish. Available choices are Country Maid Salads in large quantities and desserts in small quantities, that are ready to bake or ready to serve. If you have done your party planning correctly, you should be able to sit back and relax and enjoy your hard work. (At least until everyone leaves and you have to clean up!)
