He married (1) Barbora Kodym February 09, 1847 in Bohemia. She was born in Bohemia, and died Abt. 1855 in Bohemia. He married (2) Barbara Bures Bet. 1854 - 1855 in Bohemia, daughter of Matous Bures and Marie Klasnova. She was born 1827 in Javor, Bohemia, and died October 20, 1923 in Wausaukee.

Notes for Joseph Simon Idlbek:

Joseph was born Josef Idlbek. In the year 2001, Jiri Idlbek a relative from Bohemia found the Czech birth record of Joseph. His birthdate is 10-28-1827. According to his death record, he died at the age of 78 years, but it actually should of been 76. The 1900 census extract gave the birthdate of May 1820.

Before coming to the United States Joseph lived on his father's farm in Javor #9, Bohemia. (Czech Republic) This land was part of the Austrian Empire prior to WWI. The family farm was owned clear of debt by Joseph's father Jiri and then was passed on to Joseph at the time of his death. The family was well to do for that time period. It consisted of about 20 hectors (about 50 acres) of land and it was a tobacco farm. In 1972 the home was still standing and had the stable attached to it. Patrick Edlbeck said that Joseph sold the farm at a auction for $175 when Joseph came to the United States. Mary Caine Plummer heard the Joseph lost the farm in a poker game.

Joseph's first wife's name is Barbora Kodym. We do not have any information on how she passed, but we know that both Joseph and Barbora had Matous Bures as a witness to their wedding. Matous is the father of Barbora Bures, Joseph's second wife. Both Barbora's were said to be friends. The second witness at the first wedding was Martin Kutil.

According to the wall chart done in 1972, Barbara came to the United States in 1900 with three daughter's, J. Bures, his wife and daughter, Mrs. Rusek. But according to the census, Joseph and Barbara Bures Idlbek came in 1888. They had to have come before the spring of 1900 to make the Marinette County, Wisconsin census of 1900. The 1900 census also said that Joseph and Barbara had 12 children of which 9 were living. Jiri found all the birth records in the Pilsen archive it says that they had 11 children. All children except three came to the United States. One child Emilie Idlbek born 24.7.1871 and passed 17.4.1872. Son Josef and daughter Barbora stayed in Czech.

The wall chart also said that the Idlbek sons' worked in a brick factory in Germany and were the first to come to the States. The year of their emmigration was 1885. James Idlbek (nickname Jimson) came with James (Jake) his son and Jiri (George). The rest of the family followed on the account of money.

When first emmigrating to the United States Joseph lived in Michigan. He then moved to Wausaukee, Wisconsin. Joseph spent the first 5 years working in the woods and the lumber yard for the Birds and Wells Lumber Company. Joseph also worked as a drayman (hauled freight for people with a horse and wagon) and ran the saloon at Shepard's Hotel in Wausaukee.

This is what was on Joseph's obit out of the Wausaukee Independent newspaper on Saturday August 29, 1903:

Joseph Edlbeck passes away

He died Thursday morning, of heart failure at the age of 80 years.

Joseph Edlbeck, one of the pioneer residents of Wausaukee, died Thursday morning at his home here after a brief illness with heart disease.

The deceased was born in Bohemia eighty years ago and came to this country with his family about twenty years ago, locating in Bessemer, Michigan, where he worked on the railroad until he cme here to Wausaukee. He has been a resident of Wausaukee for about fifteen years.

He was a very rugged man for one of his years, and during the first five years after moving here he worked in the woods and the lumber yard for the Bird & Wells Lumber Company. Since that time he has been running a dray.

He was obliged to abandon his work about three weeks ago, but had been confined to his bed only a week previous to his demise.

Mr. Edlbeck is survived by his wife, who is seventy-four years of age, four sons- Anton, Frank and James, of this place, and Joseph who is living in Bohemia-and four daughters- Mrs. Anton Edlbeck, Mrs. Adam Pleckinger, Mrs. James Benesch and Mrs. Andrew Jermark, all of whom reside in Wausaukee.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at nine o'clock from St. Augustine's Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Looze officiating. Undertaker S. S. Mangold will have charge of the remains.

Joseph and Barbara may have also had a daughter Pepka. Pepka in Bohemian means Josephine. I can not find any documentation of this child, but it is said that she came to the States at the age of 18 and passed at the age of 19 from TB.

According to Mary Plummer, James and Elizabeth came with his brothers Ignatz and Censa. I did not find them on the ship record. Censa disappeared after coming to the States and Ignatz worked in a mill in Laona, Wisconsin. He died and was buried in Laona.

James and Emma came to the United States for a better life according to Mary Caine Plummer. In Europe Emma and James worked together many long hours on the railroad to make ends meet and would take their infant daughter Dorothea with them. James was also going to be conscripted into the army in Europe, that is another reason they left.

Elizabeth and James had 5 children born and five living according to the 1900 Marinette County, Wisconsin census ID #21412, Wausaukee Precinct, pg. 11. As of 1903, Alzbeta / Elizabeth Edlebeck lived at Wausaukee, Marinette Co, Wisconsin, United States.

Elizabeth died on November 20, 1923 in Wausaukeeafter a plonge illness. She passed away on Tuesday. Undertaker A. P. Bunker was in charge of the funeral. The funeral was at St. Augustine's Church Friday morning with Rev. L M Schorn oficiating. Pallbearers were Antone V. Notes for Joseph Wenzel Edlbeck:

Information from his son Patrick Edlbeck, 6-12-01, Pat wrote this information 1-22-1997

Joe W. Edlbeck attended a rural school 1/2 mile east of the "Farm" thru the 7th grade. Jake took Joe W and a team of horses to a logging camp about 30 miles north of Wausaukee and left him there to work the winter in the camp. Joe W. was about 14 years old and often told of how homesick he was that winter. Jake came to the camp about Christmas time and brought Joe W. an orange, collected the wages for Joe and the team and left. Joe W. brought the team down in the spring to do the farm work in the summer. Joe W. worked several more winters in the logging camps and later at Parson's garage in the summer. Christ & Smith, a local logging Company, bought a mnarch crawler tracto (later bought out by Caterpillar Tractor) and hired Joe W. to run and care for it as he had knowledge of motorized equipment. Most people had never seen a tractor at that time.

Joe W. and Ila Stadelbauer planned to be married when he came down from the woods in spring. When he arrived the "family" talked him out of his winters wages to pay the taxes and save the farm. Ila was furious, the marriage was delayed, and they were married a short time later. They moved to Milwaukee, Wi. and Joe W. found a job as mechanic apprentice at Swanson's Ford Dealership. the depression of the 1930's was bad and Joe W. was laid off in Milwaukee. They moved back to Wausaukeee and opened a garage next to and northof the Wausaukee Hotel. This business was successful for it's time. This business was directly across the street from "Hank" Stadelbaures store. Shortly before the 2nd World War Joe W. hired on to the CCC camp program as mechanic. ILa and the 2 children went with Joe W. in the summer time and returned to Wausaukee for school in the winter. They closed the CCC down at the start of WW2 and Joe W. was hired to take care of the new school buses that were recentlyput on the road in the Wausaukee School District. The family bought a house south of the iron bridge on the West side of Wausaukee. The house was purchased from the Lieson family who were a long time acquaintance. They lived here until moving to Green Bay permently during WW2. Joe W. then ran a boring bar at Fort Howard Paper Mill in Green Bay, Wisconsin making parts for army tanks. He then went to Cleveland Cliff Iron Co. coal dock in Green Bay as a electicians helper. Was asked to go to Duluth, Minnesota as a mechanic of the master mechanic about a year later after a man was killed in Green Bay, Wisconsin. They bought a condemned house, all windows broke out, and condemned for no sewer. Rental units were unavailable during WW2 and any livable house wass used. We worked on the Oak Street house for 8 years and finished it into a nice house. Ila lived here until she passed away from cancer in 1968. Jow W. lived in this house until he passed away in 19xx. The house was then sold. Joe W. worked for the Clevland Cliffs until a tornao blew the bridge crane down. Reiss Coal Co. bought what was left of the Clevland Cliff Dock and sold the land to Fort Howard Paper Milll. They took the men and equipment to their dock. Joe W. worked as mechaic art the Reiss Dock until he retired. Joe had heart probles for years that became worse in his old age. He died in St. Marys Hospital. Buried at Ft. Howard Cemetery, Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Joe and Ila had two children, Patrick A. and Sheila Rose Edlbeck.
